

Press Release Workforce Enterprise v.1.0 Release

Phoenix, AZ — August 7th, 2007 — ZAREQ, creator of the world's first ON-Demand Information Systems / Information Technology Workforce Acquisition Solution, today announced the release of Workforce Enterprise v1.0. This new service deployment establishes ZAREQ as the pioneer and leader of the worlds first 24/7 Workforce Acquisition Solution. Workforce Enterprise v 1.0 is a patent pending solution that delivers highly talented prospect technical candidates to fill open positions faster than ever before. The solution focuses on the four major areas of the full lifecycle placement process: Order Management, Sourcing, Screening, Presenting / Interviewing, and Customer Service. By combining human interaction with sophisticated business processes and procedures, Workforce Enterprise v1.0 has raised the bar for technical staff augmentation service providers.

“With Workforce Enterprise, our customers will receive better prospect candidates faster than ever before”, says President / CEO Ken Brown. Brown further states, “We’ve piloted the solution over the past 12 months and worked out all the kinks, and now were very excited to introduce this powerful solution to our customers.
